

New Products for 2008....

Video Security Group DM-0800 H.264 Compression DVR

The DM-0800 is a medium priced H.264 compression DVR that allows for Real-Time viewing and CIF recording. The operating system is an embedded (PSOS) operating system, and is very stable and dependable.

It supports USB 1.1, CDRW, Networking, and SATA hard drives. It features PTZ control, alarm inputs, and Audio recording. It can accommodate up to 8 hard drives.

It is accessible using a LAN or the Internet, and features Remote view, Remote playback, and Remote Download.

For Purchase Locations, contact us at Sales@RealTimeDVRs.com

- * Featuring H.264 MPEG4 compression circuitry.
- * Full D1 viewing Resolution and HD2 recording resolution.
- * Connection ports include RJ45 (Ethernet), USB 1.1, RS485, and external sensor ports.
- * Features Remote Access, Remote Playback, and Remote Download through "Remote-Client".
- * Available in 4, 8, or 16 channel models.
- * Contact us at info@RealTimeDVRs.com for more Technical information.....

SPECIFICATIONS

Video Inputs.....	4, 8, or 16 video inputs, BNC
Resolution.....	720 x 576 viewing, 352 x 288 recording
Audio Inputs.....	4, 8, or 16 audio inputs
Display Rate.....	30 FPS per channel viewing
Compression.....	H.264 compression
Operating System.....	PSOS Operating System
Format.....	NTSC, PAL
Storage.....	up to 8 SATA hard drives